

Terms and Conditions For Stall Holders

1. Arisaig Highland Games is the promoter and sole authority in relation to the event.
2. These Terms and Conditions and all other directions given by Arisaig Highland Games officials must be followed.
3. Abusive behaviour or failure to comply with such directions may result in exclusion from the site without compensation.
4. Arisaig Highland Games takes no responsibility for damage to or loss of traders and exhibitors' property while at or in transit to/from the Games site.
5. Arisaig Highland Games recommends that traders and exhibitors take out adequate insurance cover for goods. We cannot provide, and can accept no responsibility for, secure storage space for stallholders. Any goods left unattended on the field before, during, or after the games are left at the owner's risk.
6. All stallholders are required by law to hold valid and up to date Public Liability Insurance to insure against injury or damage to any party caused by the stallholder having a stall on site. Arisaig Highland Games insurers will not cover ANY stallholder's responsibility.
7. Arisaig Highland Games cannot undertake to provide any form of equipment.
8. In the event that we are oversubscribed for the stalls area, The Arisaig Highland Games Committee will decide which applications are successful. The Secretary's decision on this will be final.
9. Traders and exhibitors must not sell, or allow, any alcohol to be sold from their stall.
10. Traders and exhibitors must ensure that all of their units and equipment used and/or licensed by them must comply with all relevant health and safety, and environmental health regulation. Where appropriate Arisaig Highland Games reserves the right to demand risk assessments, and to carry them out on any piece of equipment. Arisaig Highland Games also reserves the right to exclude any item or person from the event where it is felt that they do not meet current statutory requirements.
11. Traders and exhibitors may be asked to provide a deposit for their pitch. There will be no refund or adjustment of the pre-paid amount due to inclement weather.
12. All Traders and exhibitors are responsible for the collection of refuse from their stall and its disposal to a designated area.
13. Whilst efforts will be made to locate stalls in locations of the stallholder(s) choice, no stallholder should assume rights to any particular pitch.
